

New and Renovated: Neighborhood Watch on Convention Centers

Hotels & Resorts Meeting Planning

BY HOLLY WOOLARD ON JULY 01, 2015

New and renovated properties invigorate their destinations

The Press Hotel became the first lifestyle boutique hotel in Portland, Maine, when it opened in May. This property helps immerse guests in coastal culture through the commissioned handiwork of local painters, sculptures, textile makers and woodworkers. The 110-room hotel is located in the historic Portland Press Herald building. It offers four event spaces.